VOL. VIII | PORTLAND, OREGON. THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1868 | NO. 218

Medical.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

[illegible]edical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and skillful treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

The Democracy

RECORD OF THE NEW YORK COPPERHEAD CONVENTION—THREE-FOURTHS [illegible] REBELS AND IN [illegible]—WHO ARE THE TRAITORS?

The character of the Democratic National Convention has often been commented upon. In the following summary of the history of the leading delegates thereof will be found a concentrated exhibit of their treason and treachery to American liberty and nationality which must convince all who read that out of the success of their policy no result can come other than a renewal of civil war and, if successful, a restoration of slavery with finally the overthrow of the republic.

ALABAMA

had eighteen delegates, among them C. C. Langdon of Mobile, member of the Confederate Congress, editor of one of the bitterest rebel sheets in the South, who was Chairman of the Committee on Platform. In a speech in [illegible] he [illegible] pity the Southern man who should take the test oath. A bitter and unrepentant rebel, who has done and is doing his utmost to provoke another war.

Lewis E. Parsons was another. Parsons is an original carpet bagger from Massachusetts. A professed Unionist when the rebellion begun, he was soon after in the rebel State Legislature and while there introduced and carried bills confiscating the property and outlawing the persons of the Union men of the State.

Reuben Chapman, an ex Governor of Alabama, was an original secessionist and is still a bitter rebel, and when the late "unpleasantness" occurred, declared that he would himself drink all the blood to be shed. He was one of the convention's Vice Presidents.

John A. Winston commanded a regiment of rebel infantry, was an original supporter of Yancey and went to Arkansas as a Commissioner from Alabama to induce the former State to join the secession movement.

J T Holtzclaw was a Brigadier in the rebel army.

W C Oates was a rebel Colonel.

W A Barnes was a member of the Alabama Convention and signed the ordinance of secession.

M J Bulger was a rebel Colonel.

J H Clanton was a rebel General. He is a leader of the "Young Democracy," as those rebels are termed who favor the renewal of civil war. He is active, violent, foul mouthed and recently declared in a public speech that he was going "to head another rebellion."

Samuel Ruffin was a rebel officer.

Wm M Lowe was a rebel conscript officer and the bitterest persecutor of the Unionists of Northern Alabama known to them. He is known to have made frequent use of bloodhounds in following fleeing Union men.

James L Sheffield voted for secession as a member of the State Convention and afterwards fought for it as a Colonel.

R O Pickett was a Colonel in the rebel army, employed in the conscript Bureau, and is now an open advocate of another rebellion. He declares that he will "not live under the United States Government." He was in charge of conscription in Northern Alabama, and committed outrageous and infamous cruelties.

Thomas McClellan was a member of the rebel State Legislature, and afterward in the rebel army, losing an arm in the attempt to destroy the Union.

ARKANSAS

had ten delegates to the convention. A H Garland has been a representative in the United States Congress, was a Brigadier General in the Confederate army. He was elected to the United States Senate by Johnson's Provisional Government.

E C Boudinot is a Cherokee Indian. Outlawed with his family by that nation on account of murder and treachery to their interests, he became a citizen of Arkansas, was Secretary of the Secession Convention, and was afterwards a delegate in the Confederate Congress from the rebel Cherokees.

J H Durham was an active Secessionist and Robert A Howard is a Northern "carpet bagger" who claims to have been a Captain in the Regular army, but is charged with never having reported to his regiment for duty.

DELAWARE'S

Senator James A. Bayard, was a member of the Committee on Platform, and claims to have urged the declaration that the Reconstruction acts are unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. He left his seat in the Senate rather than take the test oath. On the 30th March 1861, Mr Bayard offered the following:

> Resolved by the Senate of the United States, That the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has full power and authority to accept the declaration of the seceding States that they constitute hereafter an alien people, and to negotiate and conclude a treaty with the Confederate States of America acknowledging their independence as a separate nation.

Before that, on the 15th of January, 1861, Mr Bayard voted against a resolution declaring that any hopes of constructing a new government were "dangerous, illusory and destructive," and that "to the maintenance of the existing Union and Constitution should be directed all the energies of all the departments of the government and the efforts of all good citizens." To prove that he was not such a one he voted no. On the 17th of July 1862, he voted against an important war measure and continued in the same spirit while he remained in the Senate. He has returned to the Senate, having taken the test oath, but is as bitterly pro rebel in sentiment as ever.

FLORIDA

sent as delegates, among others A. J. Peeler, who was Captain in the rebel army; F. R. Cotton, a rebel Commissary; Wilkinson McCall, rebel Adjutant General; J P Sanderson, author of Florida secession ordinance and always a prominent fire eater.

C E Dyke, rebel Captain in command of the garrison at Andersonville. He gave his soldiers thirty days furlough for every prisoner shot. Under him the guards were permitted to fire into the stockade upon our defenceless men. He allowed his men to rob the prisoners when brought in. He stole the provisions and supplies sent from the North by the Sanitary and Christian Commissions and the friends of prisoners. He was also the proprietor of a Florida paper and wrote to it after the evacuation of Richmond [illegible] on seeing some captured Union soldiers hung that "it did a patriot's heart good to see their stink[illegible] carcasses hanging to the trees." He is a friend of Seymour and Blair.

W L Barnes, a rebel Major; R H Smith, a Captain of rebel cavalry. The balance of the delegation were all in the rebel army. One Surgeon, W H Robinson, is noted for refusing to let Union soldiers be cared for. One, E C Love, was a rebel Circuit Judge and a relentless persecutor of the Florida Unionists.

GEORGIA'S

delegation was a body of pronounced rebels and secessionists. Their leading man was Judge Benj H Hill, a former member of Congress and of the Confederate House of Representatives. Of all the prominent leaders of the rebel Democracy Hill is the most intolerant, bitter, proscriptive, denunciatory and violent. He is more responsible than any other man in Georgia for the spirit now displayed there. J B Gordon was a rebel Major General. He was the Democratic candidate for Governor recently. A R Wright was a member of the rebel Congress.

KENTUCKY

had a delegation of bold and defiant advocates of a new rebellion. W B Machen claimed to be a member of the rebel Congress, having first voted for an ordinance of secession at a peripatetic convention which tried to take Kentucky out of the Union. William Preston was a rebel general and also in the civil service of the Confederacy. He enthusiastically seconded the nomination of Frank P Blair Jr for the second Democratic nomination. S B Buckner, a rebel Major General captured at Fort Donelson by U S Grant and the Federal troops under him, now editor of the Louisville [illegible] and a violent reactionary. [illegible] was a rebel Brigadier.

MARYLAND

had among her delegates Hiram McCullough, Representative in Congress. On the 13th of December 186[illegible] he voted no on a proposed amendment prohibiting the laying of [illegible] for the payment of liabilities incurred in aid of rebellion against the Union. On the 30th of April 1866 he voted against a similar proposition, and on the 11th June, 1866, against a resolution directing the release on [illegible] of Jefferson Davis.

Stevenson Archer, a rebel sympathizer, was a delegate. He [illegible] of Congress and has always voted [illegible] interest.

[illegible]

sent a [illegible] in character [illegible] A [illegible] led by [illegible]

W S F[illegible] prominent [illegible] the State Rights [illegible] rebel Commissioner to Kentucky in 1861 for the purpose of urging [illegible]

E M Yerger [illegible] in the rebel army [illegible] the leading [illegible] Mississippi. Yerger was a [illegible] Convention and is [illegible] representative of the Southern [illegible] He was a prominent member of the [illegible] Philadelphia Convention [illegible] 1866 and was [illegible] at Tammany Hall. In [illegible] New York this rebel [illegible] fought for four years on the battle field and were [illegible] but when we tendered you the hand of friendship it was not grasped in that spirit. On the contrary I am now under the most damnable despotism ever borne by men and as for your Union of blood and plunder, oppression and tyranny, a Union headed by the usurping cabal called Congress, why I have spit upon it! The best evidence of the tyranny he denounced so savagely being found in his ability to do it unmolested, and in the fact that the unhung traitor still lives to plot new treason.

Edward Barksdale is a former and forsworn member of Congress, a rebel general and member of the Confederate Congress, and is still a violent opponent of the peaceful reconstruction of a Union he for a lifetime labored to destroy.

LOUISIANA

had a full delegation of rebels. Durant Daponte was a rebel officer on the staff of Magruder. He is a lawyer by profession and a shining light in the radical Democracy of that State. Louis St. Martin is one of the original Secessionists. The remaining delegates were all active Secessionists and most of them served the rebellion in the field.

NORTH CAROLINA

had a full delegation of rebels. Z B Vance is the most virulent and best known. He was formerly in Congress, left his seat to go into the rebellion and was the first rebel Governor. Under his administration the Union men were pursued with bitterest malignity. Hundreds were imprisoned and many killed; the conscription was merciless. He is known as the most vindictive rabble rouser in the South. In a speech to rebel soldiers he told them to "cram hell so full of Yankees that their feet would stick out of the windows," an infernal sentiment most appropriately expressed. After the Democratic nominations Vance said at a ratification meeting in Richmond, Virginia, that "what the Confederacy fought for would be won by the election of Seymour and Blair." As it appears that the real object was to "cram hell full of Yankees," according to Vance at least, so the triumph of Seymour and Blair must necessarily result in an indefinite prolongation of that Southern pastime.

W H N Smith was a member of Congress when rebellion begun and left his seat to support treason. M W Ransom and W L Cox were rebel Major Generals. The first resigned the Attorney Generalship of the State to enter the rebel army.

D M Carter was a rebel Colonel and a military judge. Under his direction scores of Union men were hung. After reconstruction began he favored it, but having been unable to win the confidence of loyal voters like other dogs, he returned to his disloyal vomit.

Delegates P H Winston, R H Smith, Robert Strange, W A Wright, John F Wright, John F Hoke, W J Green, R R Haywood, I M Leach, Thomas L Clingman, were all officers in the rebel army and most of them prominent. J F Hoke was a Major General. He captured four hundred Union soldiers belonging to a North Carolina regiment and ordered most of them shot as deserters. The orders were carried out.

Clingman was United States Senator, and left the capital to precipitate his State into rebellion. Before doing so he had the impudence to offer on the 20th of March, 1861, a resolution declaring it to be expedient for the President to withdraw all troops from the seceding States and to refrain from all attempts to collect revenue in their midst. Leach, mentioned above, was a rebel Colonel, dismissed from the service on account of cowardice.

SOUTH CAROLINA—WADE HAMPTON DICTATES THE DEMOCRATIC POLICY

led to Tammany Hall and leads in the new as she did in the former rebellion. Wade Hampton, author of the chief plank in the Democratic platform, was an active and prominent rebel soldier from the first Bull Run battle until after the surrender. He was a dashing cavalry General but is best known for his infamous violation of the laws of war in hanging captured foragers of Sherman's army during the march through South Carolina. He refused to give his parole until long after other rebel commanders retired from the field. When Hampton and his colleagues were on their way to New York a visit was made to Lee at his college. At a banquet given them the South Carolinian said: "The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell cannot be in vain, but will yet in some form triumph." At New York he served in the Committee on Platform and introduced and carried the declaration "That we (the Democracy) regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void." At a ratification meeting in the metropolis he urged his hearers to declare that these votes (meaning those of the rebels alone) shall be counted, and that if there is a majority of white votes that you will place Seymour and Blair in the White House in spite of all the bayonets that shall be brought against them. Since he returned to South Carolina this Hotspur has been engaged in making moderate (?) speeches of which the following with reference to the colored voters is a specimen:

"Try to convince the negro that we are his real friends, but if he will not be convinced, and he is still joined to his idols, convince him at least that he must look to those idols whom he serves as [illegible] and feed him. Agree among yourselves and act firmly on this belief that you will not employ any one who votes the Radical ticket."

How like old times that sounds! When Governor Pickens, of the same State, decided in the House of Representatives that "all society settles down into capitalists and laborers. The former will own the latter either collectively through the government or individually through a state of domestic servitude," when Governor McDuffie declared that "the four tendering subdivisions," into which he said free society branched, consisted of the hireling, the beggar, the thief and the prostitute—classes which had no existence "unless there had been a commencement of emancipation." Wade Hampton's advice is a mere piece of the same insolence that made Governor Hammond declare our Northern mechanics to be but the "mudsills of society," and allowed Keitt to affirm in the House of Representatives, that "free society was a failure." Workingmen will not fail to see that Wade Hampton's mode of advocating Seymour and Blair is in direct and legitimate succession to the bold declaration that "capital should own labor," made by the oligarchy when in their zenith.

B F Perry was chairman of the Palmetto State delegation. He is more notorious for his latter day advocacy of treason than for his support of the rebellion, though he has boasted of having given one hundred and fifty dollars to the Confederate cause. He served as a rebel Judge and chief of the rebel impressment bureau but was made by Andrew Johnson Provisional Governor of South Carolina. He has been a prominent pardon broker as well as a constant mouther of sedition. Perry, more than any other man in the South, except B F Hill of Georgia, is responsible for the rebel revival there.

James Chesnutt was United States Senator when secession [illegible]. He was also a Confederate Senator. [illegible] framed the ordinance [illegible] J S Frost was a [illegible] general and took an early and active part in bringing on hostilities. He was also chief of the Confederate conscription bureau. At the Lee [illegible] the wrongs of [illegible] the leathers they met in defending the slaveholders' rebellion.

William A Burt is one of Johnson's "unreconstructed satellites. He was chairman of the South Carolina House Judiciary Committee, who, under the Provisional Government framed the infamous Black Code, designed to carry out, with the sanction of the President, the doctrine enunciated by Governor Pickens that labor should be owned collectively by the Government when the laborer was not in a state of individual servitude. Our bayonets having rent asunder the fetters of the slave, Mr Burt attempted with his colleagues to frame laws by which the freedman would be practically made the slave of society.

The code which this Democrat framed provided, among other things that no colored person should be allowed to trade in any farm produce if working on a plantation without a permit from his employer. It provided that they should not be part of the militia of the State nor be allowed to own fire arms or other weapons without a magistrate's permit, the penalty being a fine and if that is not paid a public whipping. Persons of color were not to be allowed to buy, sell or trade in spirituous liquor under penalty of hard labor, fine or whipping. They were not to be allowed to live or migrate into the State, except bonds for good behavior to the amount of $1 000 were given. A system of compulsory apprenticeship was a leading feature and a heavy and distinct license was required of a colored person not required of the whites before they were to be allowed to practice "any art trade or business."

Congress representing the loyal men, having wiped the code out of existence by making the freedman a citizen, Mr Burt and his allies are now endeavoring to organize a new rebellion, hoping thereby to undo what the bayonet, the bullet, and the law has accomplished.

John Hunole, J B Bonham, A L M[illegible], and W L Simpson, were all prominent rebel officers. The last was also a member of the Confederate Congress. All of them were active Democrats and secessionists and were prominent in the movement that precipitated war. S. B. C[illegible] was one of the Peace Commissioners that were sent to Washington to bully Buchanan into acquiescence.

TENNESSEE

Had the glory, as it would appear to be from the reception he met with, of including that representative Democrat, N B Forrest, in its delegation. It also had a colored delegate, one Williams, who, having been drummed out of the Union army, has now taken refuge with the Ku-Klux Klan. Forrest was a rebel Lieutenant General. Before the war a slave trader and during the war he made himself infamous as the murderer of the people in whose flesh and blood he could no longer trade. Under his command the Union garrison at Fort Pillow, Memphis, was massacred after surrender. Over three hundred men were thus butchered, nearly all after capture, and many after being removed from the fort itself. Many other acts of cruelty are charged and proved against this butcher, who, instead of having been shot by order of a drum head court martial as he should have been, is now engaged in threatening the overthrow of the State Government of Tennessee by means of the Ku Klux, of which organization of rebel assassins in that State there can be little doubt he is the chief.

Judge T A R Nelson is best known as the eulogiser of Andrew Johnson on the impeachment trial. He was a McClellan elector in 1864, and a violent opponent of Mr Lincoln's emancipation policy. He was one of those Union men who were for the Union with slavery, but against it without it. W B Bates was a rebel General. So, also, was John F House. A W Campbell was another rebel General. A majority of the delegates were in the military or civil service of the Confederacy.

J. W Leftwick was a Representative in the Thirty sixth Congress. He recently made a speech at Memphis, urging the Democracy "to forbear with Radical rule—at least until after the election—and then, if need be, settle old scores with interest."

TEXAS

Was well represented—we mean by rebels. Col. Ashbel Smith was Colonel of the Second Texas (rebel). F S Stockdale was rebel Lieutenant Governor and an extreme secessionist. He was one of the signers of the Lee-R[illegible] letter—a new outburst of the "Let us alone" demand which characterized the early hours of the rebellion. John Hancock is a Johnson Unionist, who traded his reputation for a Brigadier Generalcy, without ever having a command. Since the war, on the question of enfranchisement, he joined the party which in Texas, have murdered in cold blood 2 000 Union men. Geo H. Giddings was a Confederate Colonel. So also was James M. Burroughs.

VIRGINIA

Sent a delegation of old style "F F V's," men yet not forgetful of their ancient arrogance, now rendered more distasteful to the loyal people by the memory of their unprovoked treason. T L Bocock was a member of the rebel Congress, so also was Thomas Goode, F McMullen and James H Barbour.

Robert Ould was a rebel Brigadier, and Commissioner of Exchange for prisoners of war. He has recently exhibited a peculiar disregard for the truth by a statement that General Grant was responsible for the delays in exchanging prisoners, and consequently for the terrible sufferings at Andersonville. Ould is the author of a letter widely circulated, written to his subordinate the rebel Winder, in which he closed with the following atrocious sentence: "The arrangement I have made works largely in our favor. We get rid of a set of miserable wretches and receive some of the best material I ever saw." Robert Y. Conrad, J B Baldwin, and others were in the Virginia Legislature. All were early and persistent rebels. They remain of the same opinion still. A Virginia Democrat is the best representative of the Bourbons known to our times.

Let Us have Peace

The voice of the nation has spoken it The friends of the country shall continue to rule Its enemies are discomfitted and utterly overthrown The great Union party of this nation are an invincible host, as full of fight as of faith, and determined that labors of so many years shall not be in vain. They keep their poise, every man among them, and go straight at the results they mean to accomplish They are resolved that the loyal blood which has been shed shall not be a useless sacrifice, they never think once of renouncing the principles for which their brothers gave their lives. They find the Democratic party standing before them again on the record as the party of the rebellion, and as usual, they march right over this traitorous organization, scattering its legions and crushing it to fragments. It is the issue of the great rebellion over again. No State where there is not a majority of actual rebels can be carried by the Democratic party on the issue it has presented Only rebel Kentucky can comply with the conditions of Democratic ascendency All who stood with the party of loyalty and freedom during the great struggle are with that party still.

This great victory is sublime It fortifies reconstruction against all attacks It crystalizes Constitutional amendments It sanctifies the laws. It tells rebels that if they can combine, so can the patriots of the North. It declares with trumpet tongue to those who have been for five years endeavoring to make treason honorable, that treason is a most odious thing, whose blackness shall grow deeper and deeper with the progress of time.

We have been told that "a great reaction" was in progress, which would sweep Radicalism from the face of the earth. Rebel Generals and their Democratic admirers have gone through the land proclaiming the doom of those whose fidelity has saved the Union A thousand treasonable presses have been preaching the doctrines of the last rebellion and the threatened revolution. And now the tempest has broken, and upon whom has the bolt of destruction fallen? Upon whom, except those who have ridged our land with graves, and those who sympathized with and encouraged this most wicked and bloody work?

What do these elections declare? No Wade Hamptons; no Fort Pillow Forrests no Pea Ridge Pikes; no double-tongued, traitorous Seymours, no reckless, recreant Blairs to raise another rebellion Let us have peace! The last vestige of the rebellion shall now be swept out of existence and the loyal men of the nation shall achieve what they have striven for, so long!

And now for our own State Now for Oregon! Union men! you can carry your State if you will. You can redeem her from the foul blight of that treason-tainted party which every loyal State has condemned. You can advance her standard to the front of the loyal army, and share the honors and benefits of the great victory. Not a single Northern State will give its vote to Seymour, are you willing for Oregon to stand alone, with rebel Kentucky, mourning for the Lost Cause? We know you are not. Awake, then! Put on your strength and go forth to the battle. Resolve that Oregon shall be redeemed Spare no effort Give the time from now till the third of November to this patriotic work Attend to nothing else. The great cause demands the effort And abundantly will the effort be repaid by the triumph.

That Whelming Tide

Yesterday morning while the news of the tremendous Republican triumphs were being received here, the patrons of the Herald were reading from the leading editorial in that valuable journal such prognostications as this

> In looking over our exchanges we find the indications unmistakable of a mighty revolution going on in favor of the Democracy which bids fair to sweep the entire Northwest.

Hadn't the editor better look over his exchanges for more comfort? O, that mighty revolution! O that 'whelming tide which Seymour with prophetic vision, saw rising

The seer of the Herald also remarks that "Wisconsin will vote for Seymour and Blair, says that Minnesota is surely Democratic and is not to be classed any longer "with the doubtful States, declares that 'leading Radicals admit that Grant has no prospect of carrying Illinois What wisdom is here! Of course all intelligent persons know that Seymour will not carry a single Northern State, unless the rebel immigration gives him Oregon, and we believe that Oregon can be secured for grant. Let Beriah go back to the resolutions of '98, and give his readers some disquisitions thereon It s the only resource left him,

The Herald goes out of its way, and out of the way of decency as usual, to make a fling at the "greenback bank" of this city It insinuates that the "greenback bank" has been betting on the election, and remarks that this is the poorest country in the world for a bondholder to put on airs in Just now it seems to be a somewhat poor country for a Copperhead sneak to put on airs in If any Republican has been betting, we have the satisfaction of knowing that he has taken in the money of some malignant hater of our free Government The Herald intimates that there is plenty of money in the hands of Lost Cause agents to bet on the result in November Pah! They wouldn't wager a dollar against a thousand!

The Meeting To night

Let all the Union people of Portland turn out to the meeting to night Let us celebrate the grand triumph of our principles in the great loyal States. Able speakers will be present Let us have a rousing meeting!

In the world to day no prouder name

    May he rule the country he has saved,
      And God defend the right

So boys a final bumper
  While we all in chorus chant—
"For next President we nominate
  Our own Ulysses Grant
And if asked what State he hails from

The Times to day has an editorial on the attitude of parties in the United States in regard to the national debt It says admitting that both the Republican and Democratic parties retain large factions who urge the payment of the principal of the debt in paper, an American statesman in the present vagueness of law and crushing necessity for economy may conscientiously hold that view But the Times argues that if this policy prevail the country would be so deeply injured that for all future time the United States would have to pay a higher rate of interest than six per cent So they would lose in the end and thus economical objects would be defeated

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 14 Montgomery street has been thronged with people all day who were in a fever of excitement about election news from the East Union men were jubilant but the Democrats were sorrowful and long visaged Great crowds stood about the newspaper bulletin boards and besieged every place where they thought it possible to get information, and personal collisions occurred but with no serious results The excitement last night was intense The telegraph office was besieged by an immense crowd who maintained their ground until the first dispatch was received at half past ten o'clock The joyful news spread like wild fire and in a few minutes it was known throughout the city The Freedom's Defenders immediately turned out in torch light procession and were joined by others until they numbered 1 500 They marched about the city cheering and being cheered until long after midnight The cheering of crowds on the sidewalks seemed like one incessant roar as they gave vent to their long pent up enthusiasm Friend would meet friend and each would instantly clasp the other by the hand and mutual congratulations upon the election would ensue

Over one hundred and fifty of the bone and sinew turned out bringing with them their wives and little ones to honor the cause dear to all loyal hearts The gallant Henry Edgerton, in a speech of two and a half hours so completely annihilated the last fag end of secession that Democrats deny the name and only crave the boon of silence On every hand we hear the cry of ' We give it up," "you have got it," and the like Put Contra Costa down for 500 majority for Grant, sure as election comes.

In the afternoon the Senate went into Committee of the Whole on Insane Asylum matters Miller of Jackson moved to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on yesterday refused to adopt the report of the Senate Special Committee in favor of Hawthorne & Loryea's proposal After some maneuvering this was done for the purpose of bringing all the proposals before the Committee on equal terms The question being then on the motion to adopt the Special Committee's report Adams moved to amend so as to recommend the proposal of Cox & Wilson Pending this motion the Committee rose and the Senate adjourned The same subject is the special order for two P M to morrow

In the House, the Committee on Military Affairs reported that it is not expedient to abolish the office of Adjutant General Ordered printed

Both houses adjourned at an early hour to give members an opportunity to visit the Asylum and Penitentiary grounds [illegible] the 'loyal telegraph' did 'toot the Radical horn" yesterday! It has not to fail so loud since the flag of the "white man's Government " went down before Grant at the Appomattox.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Thursday, Oct 13, 1868.

IN THE HOUSE—THE SCHOOL LAW

Mr Stites, from Committee on Education, reported back the bill relating to common schools, with certain amendments, among which was one increasing the school tax four mills. Mr Gray opposed the amendment on the ground that the tax would be burdensome, and moved to lay the amendment on the table, lost by ayes 16, nays 28. Mr Waymire wanted to amend so that County Commissioners "may" levy four mills, instead of "shall" Mr Chapman offered an amendment providing that the school tax shall be two mills, but commissioners may levy four when the public welfare demands it " Taylor, of Washington, Lichtenthaler, of Marion, Grant of Polk, Garrett, of Clackamas, Alexander, of Linn, Bellinger of Benton, Minto, of Marion Stites of Linn, and others, spoke against the amendment and in favor of the four mill tax Benson of Union, Chapman, of Multnomah, Gray, of Grant, White of Jackson, and Waymire of Polk, spoke against the tax Stites, said the Democratic party had been charged with being opposed to education, and he called on them now to make a record and prove the charge false Gilfrey favored the amendment and said the Democratic party was pledged to retrenchment and Waymire said if the Legislature voted a tax, not one of the members would be returned The vote being taken on the amendment, resulted in ayes 16, nays 30 Mr Tandy then moved to strike out four mills and insert three mills lost by 16 to 30 The vote was then taken on the amendment, providing a four mill tax for school purposes, with the following result

Ayes Alexander, of Linn Alexander, of Benton Applegate, Bellinger Burnett, Brown, Cox, Crooke Davenport Denny, Fisk, Gazley, Garrett Grant Hunter, Johnson, Jackson Louden, Lichtenthaler Minto, Pendergast, Powell, Rinehart, Smith Stites Simpson, Trullinger Tandy Townsend, Taylor and Winston –31

Nays Beers Bryant Benson Butler, Chapman Davis Gray Gilfrey, Kirk Neal, Scoggins White Waymire and Mr Speaker It will be seen that notwithstanding Mr Stites appeal to Democrats to make a record in favor of education a majority of them voted against the tax of fourteen mills thirteen voting for and fifteen against, while Butler was the only Republican who voted against. This constitutes the record "

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

In the afternoon a message was received from the Governor, in reply to a resolution asking for information in relation to the Penitentiary from the 1st to the 14th of September, 1866 embracing which time the reports are silent. The Governor said that he was inaugurated on the 11th of September 1866 that A C R Shaw was Superintendent from the 1st to the 14th, when he was relieved by M P Berry that Mr Shaw made no report after the 1st and that, therefore, he had no official information of transactions during the period mentioned The message was referred to the Judiciary Committee

Mr Tandy introduced a bill to incorporate Roseburg

THE MODE OF VOTING

Mr Cox, from the majority of the Committee to whom was referred the bill to change the mode of voting, submitted a report favoring the passage of the bill Mr Tandy submitted a minority report against the passage Mr Waymire moved to indefinitely postpone both the bill and Cox's report On this there was some discussion, when Mr Gray moved the previous question which was negatived The Speaker decided that this disposed of the whole matter for to day

HOUSE MEMORIAL NO 1.

The Senate amended Chapman's railroad memorial and sent it back this afternoon Mr Chapman moved that the House do not concur On this the vote was a tie—23 to 23. So the House refused to "not concur "

THE BILL TO REPEAL THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE

The Governor returned H. B No 4, repealing the oath of allegiance in certain cases, with a message informing the House that in his judgment the title of the bill was not such as contemplated by the Constitution, and that the bill with its present title could not become a constitutional law. The bill with the message were referred to the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills for correction of title

NEW BILLS.

Mr Ryan introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 from the sale of lands donated by Congress for internal improvements, to construct a road from Sandy, in Multnomah county, on the south side of the Columbia river to Dalles City Mr Cox introduced a bill to amend the law regulating marks and brands Mr Gazley introduced a bill making the salaries of State, District and county officers, jury fees, witness fees, etc payable in gold coin Mr. Cox offered a resolution, which was adopted, that no new bills be received for print ed after Saturday the 17th inst Mr Jackson introduced a resolution providing for evening sessions, which was indefinitely postponed

IN THE SENATE—PETITION FOR RELIEF.

Mr Hendershott presented a petition from numerous citizens of Salem and other places for an appropriation for the relief of Chas B Pleasants who lost his eyes some years since by the premature discharge of a cannon Referred to the committee on claims

BILLS KILLED

The bill to amend the law incorporating Umpqua Academy, and a bill to amend the code as to criminal procedure in justices' courts, were reported back from the Judiciary Committee with unfavorable recommendations The reports were adopted and the bills, therefore fail

TREVITT GOES AFTER THE ADJUTANT GENERAL

Mr Trevitt from the Committee on Military Affairs, introduced a bill to amend the militia law The amendment abolishes the office of Adjutant General and directs that officer to turn over everything to the Secretary of State

THE PENITENTIARY TO BE REMOVED

Mr Miller of Jackson, from the Special Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Governor's Biennial Message relating to the penitentiary, reported against further expenditures, of a permanent character at the present location of the Penitentiary, that the site is an unfit one: that it be sold and a new one purchased, etc. The committee went out of its way to express a similar opinion in relation to the site for the Insane Asylum. The report was adopted This action looks, I think, to an attempt to locate the Penitentiary across the river, in Polk county

A PLUNDER BILL PASSED

The House bill to donate certain lands to the Dalles military road company was passed. The time will come when the members will wake up to the fact that they have made a very extensive grant for a small consideration

INSANE ASYLUM.

In committee of the whole, the Senate had under consideration the proposals for the keeping of the insane The following are the terms offered

Hawthorne & Loryea offer to keep them for two years or more at $7 per week or they will rent their buildings to the State for ten per cent of their cost and sell all their furniture provided they are retained as attending physicians

Dr A D Ellis, of Portland, offers to take the insane for eight years at $8 per week for all patients where they do not exceed one hundred where they exceed one hundred, then $5 per week, to build permanent buildings, such as the State may determine, and to turn them over to the State at the expiration of eight years He also makes a second proposal to take them for two or more years at $6 25 per week—buildings and numbers of patients not regarded

Cox & Wilson, of Salem, propose to take the insane for two or more years, furnish everything, at 68 cents per day to erect permanent buildings and the State to purchase them at the expiration of the contract Or, if the State will furnish buildings, to take the insane for 60 cents per day each

Dr Sharples proposes to take them for eight years at $8 per week, when patients do not exceed one hundred, excess of one hundred, $5 per week, to erect brick buildings capable of accommodating 400, and to turn them over to the State at the expiration of eight years

Dr McAfee proposes to take the insane at $7 per week, or, if the State will furnish buildings and fuel, to give supervision and medical treatment for $1,600 per year

When these propositions had been read, Mr Trevitt moved to adopt the report of the Committee which favors giving the contract to Hawthorne & Loryea This was negatived by a rising vote by 9 to 12 Mr Bayley moved to adopt Dr Sharples proposition pending which the Committee rose, reported progress asked and obtained leave to sit again to morrow at 2 o'clock P M

I have made some calculations based on the above proposals which will show the comparative economy of each Assuming that the number of patients will be 100 and the cost of buildings, $75,000 the proposals are as follows for an eight years term

Hawthorne & Loryea	$291 200
Cox & Wilson	302,760
Dr Ellis	322,460
Dr Sharples	332,800
Dr McAfee	291,200

The propositions of Hawthorne & Loryea and Dr McAfee if accepted would leave the State without a building The calculations in the other cases are based upon the proposition to provide suitable buildings and give them to the State. For an eight years term then the State would have the best bargain with Cox & Wilson, by $19,745 The next lowest offer is that of Dr Ellis, third Dr Sharples With a building in the offer of Hawthorne & Loryea is $53 440 above that of Cox & Wilson $43 800 above that of Dr Ellis, and $3 100 above that of Dr Sharples If the State were to accept the offer of Miller to build a temporary building and Cox & Wilson's offer to take the insane at 60 cts per day and then put up a building costing $75 000, the cost of buildings and keeping the insane at the end of eight years, at same rate would be $256 925—the cheapest proposition of all, by $45,835. If the State were to put up buildings immediately and assume the care of the insane, the expenditures for an eight years' term would fall far within even the lowest figures above

Yesterday when the news came of the great Republican victories the hitherto hopeful friends of the Lost Cause left the streets and slunk out of sight The Democracy of Portland actually haven't looked so chopfallen since they heard of Lee's surrender

Grover and others have appointments for addressing the faithful at different points through the State With the certainty of defeat staring them in the face, what a cheerful time they will have of it, to be sure!

During the last two years we have heard a good deal about a coming whirlwind that was to sweep Radicalism from the country But it seems that the wind is of a kind under which Democracy withers as under a sirocco O! that astonishing reaction!

Wouldn't it be well for Beriah to write a thrilling leader to arouse the unterrified, headed, "How would you like to have your sister marry a nigger Perhaps they could be aroused to make one more effort

Talking about the "great coming revolution" that was to annihilate "Radicalism " Frank Blair in a recent speech remarked that revolutions never go backwards But he has discovered that rebellions do

The people declare in thunder tones that they are not ready to accept the leadership of such shining patriots as Fort Pillow Forrest, Hampton and Vallandigham That's what's the matter with the Democracy!

The official majority in Maine, as we learn from the Chicago Tribune of September 29 is 20,404 Some hundreds better than the report we published two or three weeks ago

The electors mean that rebels are not to rule this country Treason is to be made odious as the people intended it should be when they crushed the rebellion

Isn't there terrible danger of "nigger equality" in this country? Will the Herald tell us what are the prospects for the "white man's party?"

The Wade Hampton platform is smashed into fragments The attempt to ennoble and dignify the rebellion has failed Let us have peace!

Everybody was anxious to hear the result [illegible] and there was quite a rush to the telegraph office [and] the offices of the newspapers which have tele[graphic com]munication with the East. About noon the [wires] began to tell a tale that rejoiced the hearts of [Union] men and made the Democrats [illegible] faces [grow] to a doleful length. The majority in the several States was larger than the Republicans [ex]pected, and as the news was con[firmed] by the latest dispatches the OREGONIAN office [illegible] raising the principal returns received [illegible] being generally disseminated [through] the city, congratulations between Union men [illegible] and a smile of satisfaction showed itself [illegible] where the gloom of defeat last June [illegible] these months. Mr Zachariah Wilson Portland Oregon, writes:

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments Murray s Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing entitles Dr Murray s Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache Distressing Pains etc "

John English of Howell Prairie Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since I have seen your family used [illegible] with excellent success I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever used for those complaints I am now on my way to [illegible] America after residing in Oregon twenty years I must now have two Balsam and two Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am sure they are the best [illegible] in Oregon and I will not be without them in my house and when the package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply J ENGLISH

Use none but the Best.—Thousands of worthless preparations are scattered broadcast over the land purporting to be SPECIFICS for Consumption. Some may possess a little merit but when it is known beyond the possibility of successful contradiction that NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP has accomplished all that is claimed for it as a remedy for ALL affections of the CHEST and LUNGS, it seems little short of criminal neglect for persons requiring such a remedy to waste the "golden moment" in experimenting with any other It is equally applicable in all cases young or old

For the Bath.—Hedington & Co's. The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. THE NATIONAL DEBT QUADRUPLED IN FOUR YEARS OF DEMOCRATIC RULE UNDER POLK—THE NATIONAL DEBT DOUBLED IN TWO YEARS OF DEMOCRATIC RULE IN PEACE—BUCHANAN TREBLED THE DEBT IN FOUR YEARS OF PROFOUND PEACE—TWELVE PER CENT INTEREST DEMANDED FROM A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

[From the Albany N Y Journal]

Democrats tell us to look to them for a reduction of the national debt Let us see about it

The National debt July 1 1845 was $16 [illegible] 23
The National debt July 1 1849 was $64 [illegible] 693 [illegible]

Here is a four fold increase of the public debt under a Democratic Administration But it may be said the Mexican war occurred in that period. The war closed in Sept 1847 Now let us see what the increase was in the period of peace

Debt July 1 1847 $38 [illegible] 38
Debt July 1, 1849 64 [illegible] 1

Here is a doubling of the debt by a Democratic Administration in two years of peace But it will be said that the war accounts did not close with the war and that this is the reason why the debt was so large a year and ten months after the close of the war Nevertheless the debt did double in that time

Now remember while Democrats doubled the debt in two years after the war they bring figures to show that the Republicans have reduced the debt since the war, and only complain because they have not reduced it more Look at the contrast The figures which Democrats give do not tell the truth within four hundred millions of dollars but they show that the Republicans have reduced the debt over a hundred millions The Republicans would have done just double what the Democrats did if they had not reduced it at all

But this is not all. The Public Debt trebled under James Buchanan's administration, and he was not troubled with any war, at all On the first of July, 1857, the public debt was but $20,060,386 90 On the fourth of March, 1861, when Abraham Lincoln was first inaugurated, the debt was over eighty five millions of dollars Thus the Democratic party trebled our National Debt and willed us a war which sent the debt up to three thousand millions

And this is the party that now asks power in order that it may reduce the debt We take it the people will be amply satisfied with the millions of reduction the Republican party has made, and will not trust the treasury to a party which has exhibited its capacity to increase the debt three times over in time of peace The Democratic party is anything but a party of economy

But even this is not all Howell Cobb, a gushing Seymour and Blair orator, spent the last dollar in the treasury, and resigned, December 19, 1860, weeping that there were no more monies for him to squander On the 14th of December, 1860, proposals for a ten million loan were advertised, and they were opened on the 18th of December But one-half million of the ten million advertised were bid for, and this at discounts of from twelve to thirty-six per cent. Finally the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars, only, was obtained from the New York city banks, at twelve per cent and with that the Democratic administration of James Buchanan met the January interest of its swollen debt

If you prefer a party which trebles the debt in time of peace, and pays twelve per cent interest, then vote for Seymour and Blair, for they are your candidates But if you wish an administration which reduces the debt in time of peace and only pays four and five per cent., then Grant and Colfax are your men Which do you prefer?

Strange Story

The financial crisis of 1857 dates the commencement of many sad tales The following story related by a New York detective, is a romance For obvious reasons we withhold the names of parties concerned. The village of Lyons, in the State of New York, was the residence in 1857 of a wealthy, retired merchant, his wife and an only daughter, who was at that time young, handsome and accomplished She had been reared with all the advantages love could suggest or wealth command. She was engaged to a promising young lawyer, to whom she was to be married the following winter. Disaster succeeded disaster in the commercial world. The father of the young lady in a single day was hurled from affluence to poverty. His superb mansion, costly plate, horses, carriages, everything was sold at auction. He removed, with his wife and daughter, to New York city, where he secured a situation as copying clerk in a house that one year before would have honored his check for $100,000. The miserable pittance allowed the father was not sufficient to support the family. The daughter, after numberless attempts, succeeded in procuring a situation as seamstress She had occasional [illegible] for nearly a year when news reached her of the marriage of her affianced. She left home, father and mother

Several years later her father catches a glimpse of her, in company with her former lover, on a train just leaving the Hudson river depot. Her father, who had regained a portion of his wealth, secured the services of an efficient detective, who has been [illegible] three years in "working up" the case. The man to whom she was to have been married, [illegible] he was married, and [illegible] her loss or [illegible] of his early love, [illegible] and, losing his practice, [illegible] the occupation of a [illegible] house where he met the [illegible] A spark of the old love must have remained alive, for they joined their fortunes and appear to have made a credit[illegible] to redeem each other. They went to Montreal, Canada where he taught [illegible]. They remained in Canada only a short time, returning to New York State and opening a store, he appears to have accumulated some money, for the next time they are heard from, he is at Shullsburg negotiating for a farm situated in the neighborhood of Vinegar Hill, At Shullsburg our informant lost all trace of them He left on last evening's train for New York city, there to await further developments Truth is indeed stranger than fiction

The Hebrew Question.

The Reporter, a Democratic paper of Sacramento, recently declared that all the Jewish voters of that city are for Seymour and Blair. A vote was taken a few days ago among a party of Israelites by Alex Zekind, a prominent Jewish citizen of Sacramento, and the result showed a large majority for Grant. The Reporter misrepresented this matter, and Mr. Zekind retorted with the following letter to the Nevada Transcript:

SACRAMENTO CITY, Oct. 2, 1868

ED. TRANSCRIPT —I noticed an article in the Reporter of this city, wherein it stated that there were but eight voters present at the time I took the vote which was published in the Transcript of the 1st inst. I would inform you for the benefit of the Reporter that its statement of my vote is false I would refer the Reporter to Mr Greenbaum's letter, written in Chicago to the Central Committee of the State of Illinois; also, to the speech of Josh Green, an Israelite of Keokuk, Iowa, and a letter written by an Israelite in this State and published in the Marysville Appeal and in the Transcript of Sept. 9th I tell you that no Israelite who has been a Union man at heart and who [illegible] for his adopted country will cast his vote against Grant and Colfax. One thing I have learned since my departure from Nevada City, and that is that all the most intelligent Israelites are with us, and this State is with us by 15,000 majority Tell the Reporter to put that in its pipe and smoke it

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented has been brought to Portland by

who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines and to sell county rights to manufacture the same

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the seeder being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone The farmer or his boy riding, and driving his team instead of walking and carrying the heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain in

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which while it carries the farmer on a sulky sows wheat barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind covers the grain and the labor is done Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor at once—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of us Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California and where the farmers write to the inventor respecting it after this manner

LINCOLN (Placer Co), Sept 5 68

MR H A. GASTON—Dear Sir, I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do I have sowed and gauged them perfectly

T. G. PURINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr Brusie at C Hopkins, corner of Front and Morrison streets in this city machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

EXTINGUISHER

SELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement

It is always ready for use though standing unused for years

It puts out Fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene Tar Naphthaline and combustible materials now in common use

PRICE—No 1 $55; No 2 $65; No 3 $60

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who drag out a miserable existence from the effects of indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon as his particular whole made private diseases his especial study for years and who has been certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is my desire to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their bills in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn certificates decoy the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and barbers too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
